ABOUT THE COMPANY

The University of Oxford is a collegiate research university located in Oxford, England and is one of the leading universities in the world.

CASE STUDY

We are delighted to announce the completion of a "state of art" new shared data centre for Oxford University. We are equally proud to announce the completion of the whole 1.2 million Pound project on time and within budget.

We were appointed as the main contractor for this prestigious project, utilising many of J Brands varied services. Relying on the years of knowledge & experience our staff offer. Our sister company Lowe & Oliver completed the mechanical and electrical installation. We would like to thank our build partners in this project, most who we've enjoyed a long,
