Meet the Team

Guy Jones – J Brand Group Managing Director reflects over his time with the company:-

October this year has marked my 25th anniversary with J Brand. During this time I have seen many changes, as technology and the business has evolved. I have enjoyed all my time at J Brand and have been involved in some fantastic and sometimes ground breaking projects. I have been fortunate to work with some great personalities, many of whom have become friends. Indeed, I genuinely believe that the staff and operatives at J Brand are a special breed who absolutely live and breathe the "My Customer, My Responsibility" Ethos. It is particularly pleasing when I look around the business to see a number of the guys who make me seem like the relative "new boy". I have learnt so much from them and continue to learn from all my colleagues on a daily basis.

I took on my current role at the depth of the recent recession, support and resolve from our staff has been invaluable during the difficult times and I am delighted that we appear to be witnessing an improvement in the wider economy which is hopefully good news for all of us.

Again, we are fortunate that during the tough times, we retained many loyal customers who continue to support us. I do hope we see many friends and customers at our event on 27th November so that we can celebrate in style.

I am lucky that I can honestly say I have enjoyed the last 25 years and only hope that the next 25 are as much fun!
