"My Customer, My Responsibility"  85 Years of Service

Wireless Networks Overview

Partnering with the leading software & hardware providers, J Brand has become the 'go-to' partner for wireless surveys and installations throughout Europe. Our many surveyors have the further benefit of understanding the cabling and infrastructure requirements, which is a critical part of any survey. Put simply, if we survey, your wireless network and associated installation will meet your requirements and be installed to the prevailing standards.
